

Corporate Instructions Email Agreement Form

This facility can be used by corporate clients but only if this agreement is signed in accordance with your registered signatory mandate. If you wish to take advantage of this facility please complete the agreement.

Skipton International (Skipton) recognise that it is convenient to be able to communicate and give instructions via email, however there must be safeguards against misuse by other persons. Our email payment facility involves the acceptance of instructions sent via email to make payments to nominated account(s) only. The email instruction must be approved in line with your company's signatory list.

Skipton will only accept email instructions that have been sent from your company's business email address. For security purposes Skipton will carry out security measures before making payments.

We will respond to such requests from you, provided that you waive any right of action that you might have against us in the event that information is passed to someone else as a result of responding to a request that purports to have come from you.

As you are using an insecure means of communication to give instructions to us and to receive information, we advise you to take legal advice before signing this form.

You can use this facility for internal transfers, placing amounts on notice, opening new accounts and to make external payments to nominated account(s) only.

Please note that we cannot accept instructions regarding changes to static company or account data by email. Email instructions must be sent from your nominated email domain (overleaf).

We apply strict procedures to the operation of this facility and before this facility is accepted we will contact the account holders, by phone, to ascertain that the request is genuine. We reserve the right not to carry out instructions if we suspect that the facility has been compromised or if we are in any doubt as to whether they come from you.
