The Guernsey and Jersey government have signed a number of inter-governmental agreements and the OECD Multilateral Competent Authority Agreement to share tax information, where applicable, with the tax authorities in other jurisdictions. The requirement to collect certain information about each customer's tax agreement is part of the Guernsey and Jersey legislation and as a financial services company we are legally obliged to collect it. We are asking for your tax residency and tax ID numbers (where applicable) and will record this on our records now, but will only disclose this information to the relevant tax authorities if and when we are required by Guernsey and Jersey law.

Your tax residence generally is the country in which you live for more than half a year, but there may be other criteria. Special circumstances (such as studying abroad, working overseas, or extended travel) may cause you to be resident elsewhere or resident in more than one country at the same time (dual residency). The country/countries in which you pay income tax are likely to be your country/countries of tax residence. If you are a US citizen or hold a US passport or green card, you will also be considered tax resident in the US even if you live outside the US.

If you have any questions on how to complete this section we recommend you speak to your tax or legal adviser.

Skipton Telephone Banking

Passcode(s) for Telephone Instructions

The passcode facility allows customers to give instructions via telephone. For security purposes this facility can only be used to:

- Make payments to Nominated Accounts (which have to be in your own name(s))
- To make transfers between accounts in your name(s) held at Skipton International Limited
- Obtain information about your account(s) held with Skipton International Limited

We recognise that it is convenient to be able to communicate via telephone, but there must be safeguards against misuse by other persons. You should understand that when we receive instructions by telephone we cannot be sure that they come from you. It is therefore vital that you keep tight control of your passcode. Security is your responsibility and therefore you should not divulge your chosen passcode and you should not write it down. Should it fall into the wrong hands, it would be easy for someone to give instructions that appear to have come from you. We will respond to such requests from you, provided that you waive any right of action you might have against us in the event that information is passed to someone else as a result of our responding to a request that purports to have come from you. If your account requires more than one signature for withdrawals, all passcodes will be required when giving instructions verbally over the telephone.

As you are using an insecure means of communication to give instructions to us and to receive information, we advise you to take legal advice before ticking the indemnity.

We will not make payments unless the correct passcode is quoted.

In order to register for Telephone Banking please provide your chosen passcode(s) below:

First Applicant

Second Applicant

The passcode must be numerical and six digits long and should be unique and non-obvious, please do not use your date of birth.

Please note joint account holders must have different passcodes. Security is your responsibility and therefore you should not divulge your chosen passcode and should not write it down.

10. Indemnity

In consideration of you, your employees or agents acting in accordance with any instructions given verbally over the telephone authorised by a password in your possession purporting to be from me, I:

- Irrevocably authorise you to debit my account with all sums of monies paid out pursuant to such instructions and with all charges and expenses (including any sums payable under the indemnity below) which you may incur as a result of your complying with such instructions;
- Undertake to indemnify and keep you indemnified against all claims, losses, expenses and liabilities in relation to or arising out of your acting on such instructions;
- Declare that I have been advised to obtain legal advice before executing this agreement and either have taken legal advice or have had the opportunity but have not done so and I understand that enforcement by you of your rights under the indemnity in this agreement may result in loss to me;
- Understand that apart from transfers between accounts with you in my/our name(s), instructions authenticated by passwords will be accepted by you only to give out information on account(s) with you and/or to make payments to my/our nominated bank account and/or to issue Sterling cheques payable in my/our own name(s) to my/our registered address;

Note that only one password indemnity per customer relationship is to be used.

By ticking the below box, I confirm that I have read and agree to the Indemnity terms above, I understand that this Indemnity shall be governed by the law of Guernsey and I submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Guernsey courts in all matters arising from it.
